An Act

To establish a free and independent press for the Osage Nation.

Be it enacted by the Congress of the Osage Nation:

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE

This act shall be known as the “Independent Press Act of 2008”.

SECTION 2. PURPOSE

This act affirms the policy regarding the Osage Nation’s press. It is imperative to have measures in place to ensure the freedom of the press and to ensure the tribal publications have the independence to report objectively.

SECTION 3. CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

It is the policy of the Osage Nation to respect the civil rights of Osage people set forth in the Osage Constitution. Article II of the Osage Constitution by reference, included and adopted the Federal Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968, 25 USC 1302, to apply to all Osages. Therefore, the Constitution of the Osage Nation provides that the principles of free speech and free press, the rights of the people to assemble and petition for redress of grievances shall not be abridged.

SECTION 4. AN INDEPENDENT OSAGE PRESS

The Osage Nation’s Press shall be independent from any undue influence and free of any particular political interest. It is the duty of the press to report without bias the activities of the government and the news of interest to have informed citizens.
SECTION 5. PROVIDING FOR INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

The newspaper currently published by the Osage Nation known as “Osage News” shall become an independent newspaper and shall be published at least monthly to report news and provide a forum for all views of the Osages.

SECTION 6. EDITORIAL BOARD AND EDITOR

A. An Editorial Board is hereby created and shall consist of three members. To be eligible to serve as a Board member, a person must (i) be at least 25 years of age, (ii) have quality experience in the management and operations of publications; (iii) be of good character and have a reputation of integrity; (iv) be physically able to carry out the duties of office; (v) have at least 5 years of professional journalism experience and/or an advanced degree in journalism; (vi) certify he or she will adhere to the standards of accepted ethics of journalism as defined by the Society of Professional Journalists and endorsed by the Native American Journalists Association.

B. The Principal Chief shall appoint one (1) member of the Board; the Congress shall appoint one (1) member of the Board and the third member shall be appointed by the initial two (2) members.

C. One member shall serve as Chairperson, one member to serve as Vice-Chairperson and one member to serve as Secretary. Officers shall be chosen amongst the Board members, once confirmed by Congress.

D. The terms of office of the Board members shall be two years.

E. The Board shall meet at least quarterly, and meeting by conference call shall be valid except that the Board shall meet at least twice annually in person.

F. Editorial Board members shall not be current Osage Nation employees.

G. Board Members shall serve their terms of office free from political influence from any Executive, Judicial or Legislative Officials of any Branch, Division or Department of the government of the Osage Nation and may be removed only for cause subject to a hearing by the Osage Nation district court. Removal of Board members shall be conducted in accordance with Article XII of the Osage Nation Constitution. Except as authorized under the Constitution of the Osage Nation, no member of the Board shall, directly or indirectly, solicit, receive or in any manner be concerned in soliciting or receiving any assessment, subscription or contribution for any political organization, candidacy or other political purpose. The Board Members shall not participate in any political campaign or be involved in any tribal political activity, except to exercise his or her right as a citizen to express his or her individual opinion by casting his or her vote.

H. The Editorial Board members shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in the pursuit of their duties in accordance with the policies of the Osage Nation.

SECTION 7. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

The Board shall have the following powers and duties:

A. To establish and enforce an editorial policy that will be fair and responsible in the reporting of general news, current events and issues of Osage concern including activities of the community, language, culture, history and other subjects which will inform the Osage citizenry about their government, tribe, and culture.

B. To ensure the operational structure is sound and that the duties and obligations required of the Board are fulfilled.

C. To review advertising rates and policies.

D. To develop consistent fair and reasonable policies on campaign advertising to be published sixty days prior to beginning of the filing period.

SECTION 8. EDITOR

A. An Editor shall be appointed by the Editorial Board to oversee the operations of the newspaper.

B. The Editor must:

1. be at least 25 years of age;

2. have a bachelor's degree in journalism or a related field from a college or university and have quality experience in the management and operations of publications;

3. be of good character and have a reputation of integrity;

4. be physically able to carry out the duties of office;
5. certify he or she will adhere to the standards of accepted ethics of journalism as defined by the Society of Professional Journalists and endorsed by the Native American Journalists Association;

6. have at least five (5) years professional journalism experience in the fields of reporting, copy editing, multi-media, photographer or editor at a non-tribal or tribal newspaper; and

C. Whenever a vacancy occurs, the Editorial Board shall appoint a new Editor.

D. The Editor shall serve until removed by the Editorial Board or until the Editor resigns the position in writing to the Editorial Board.

E. The Editor shall serve his or her term of office free from political influence from any department of the government of the Osage Nation and may be removed only for cause. The Editor shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, receive or in any manner be concerned in soliciting or receiving any assessment, subscription or contribution for any political organization, candidacy or other political purpose. The Editor shall not participate in any political campaign or be involved in any tribal political activity, except to exercise his or her right as a citizen to express his or her individual opinion and cast his or her right to vote.

SECTION 9. SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this act are severable, and if any part or provision hereof shall be held void, the decision of any court so holding shall not affect or impair any of the remaining parts or provisions of this act.

ENACTED by the Osage Nation Congress on this 9TH day of April, 2008.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Speaker of the Osage Nation Congress has hereto attached his signature.

EXECUTIVE VETO MESSAGE

April 14, 2008

The Honorable Archie Mason, Speaker of the Osage Nation Congress and Members of the 1st Osage Nation Congress

Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the 1st Osage Nation Congress:

I hereby transmit pursuant to the provisions of Section 11 of Article VII and Section 13 of Article VI of the Osage Nation Constitution, a statement of items to which I object and which I do not approve, contained in Bill ONCA 08-07, entitled:

"An Act to establish a free and independent press for the Osage Nation." Inclusive

My reason for vetoing this bill is primarily as follows:
I am returning Bill ONCA 08-07 without my signature due to the constitutional violations it presents. Section 3, subsection (a) of Article IV of the Constitution of the Osage Nation states: "The Osage Nation government in exercising sovereign powers shall not: make or enforce any law prohibiting the free exercise of religion, or abridging the freedom of speech or the press ..." ONCA 08-07 attempts to regulate the structure and content of the Osage News and therefore abridges the freedom of the press. Additionally, the bill requires that the press be "independent from any undue influence and free of any particular political interest." However, the next sentence in the same section states: "It is the duty of the press to report without bias the activities of the government and the news of interest to have informed citizens." By reporting on governmental activities, the newspaper will continue to be inherently political, and will therefore violate this Act as long as it exists.

This legislation seeks to establish a free and independent newspaper for the Osage Nation, yet it must be asserted the press can never be free or independent if the funding to support it is subject to legislative appropriations and it is established by Congress. I fully support the idea of a newspaper that reports objectively and I encourage the establishment of an Editorial Board for the Osage News. I also agree with the implementation of an Editorial Board to serve as a buffer from undue influence and political bias. However, as long as the newspaper depends on Congressional appropriations for its very operation, there will always be the chance that a future Congress may discontinue or cut appropriations if they disagree with the content or message of the press. This bill is an unconstitutional prior restraint on free speech. Legislative regulation of a free and independent newspaper is unavoidably conflictive by design and so I must return ONCA 08-07 unsigned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jim Gray, Principal Chief
VETO OVERRIDE CERTIFICATION

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, CERTIFY THAT THE FOREGOING IS A TRUE EXTRACT FROM THE MINUTES OF THE Osage Nation Congress comprised of twelve members and one ex-officio member with 12 members attending this meeting on the 17TH day of April, 2008, and that the foregoing veto override was approved by a three-fourths vote of the Osage Nation Congress in accordance with the Constitution of the Osage Nation Article VI, Section 13. This provision was adopted by a vote of 9 in favor, 2 against, and 1 absent.
